Navigating Data Chaos with Confidence – Learn from Today's Digital Leaders ~ Christal Bemont, CEO, Talend
With Special Guest: Sai Jasti, VP, Data Analytics & AI, GSK Vaccines – Global Tech

Seeing that even the largest and most robust enterprises are vulnerable has reinforced the importance of digital transformation and precise data analytics to deliver experiences that matter to customers. Information continues to be our greatest asset against uncertainty, allowing us to re-instrument, adapt, and even excel through turbulent times. Talend’s CEO, Christal Bemont, celebrates the companies that go on the offense and act with clarity and confidence amidst adversity. Discover the best approaches to unlocking your data's full value by focusing less on the mechanics of data management and more on creating trusted insights that drive meaningful business outcomes. |
| 12.00 – 12.45 | Increasing Your Data IQ – What's Next for Talend Data Fabric ~ Julien Sauvage, Vice President, Product Marketing, Talend

Companies must leverage data to increase productivity, unlock new revenue streams, and adapt to market shifts. Success requires you to deliver the right data to the right people at precisely the right time. Julien Sauvage, VP of Product Marketing, highlights what is new in Talend Data Fabric to support your data evolution, including the latest enhancements to the industry’s first data Trust Score. Get a glimpse of some game-changing innovations on the horizon designed to increase the timeliness, accuracy, and relevancy of your data to help you compete, thrive, and win in any market. |
| 13.00 – 14.50 | Everyone’s a Data User Technical Track
Join fellow practitioners for an in depth look at how modern businesses are empowering more users to become data driven, for better outcomes. Hear from Talend customers, partners, and experts and learn about the latest technologies to unlock the potential of organizations with data literacy.

Trusted Data for Success Business Track
Data can make or break your business. If your data is unreliable, so are your decisions. You'll hear from Talend customers as they discuss how they are finding success by ensuring that decisions are made on trusted data.

The Future is Now Executive Track
Join a diversified group of industry experts and thought leaders as we explore how data is transforming the way we lead. Trusted data and agility are the superpowers for the leadership of today. |
| 15.00 – 15.30 | Special Closing Keynote Guest Speaker: Nancy Rademaker, Professional Keynote Speaker & Partner, Nexxworks

In the years to come, a human-centered approach to digital transformation will be the key to success. Using artificially intelligent algorithms will enable organizations to improve both their customers’ and employees’ experience. At the same time, issues around trust must be resolved, and both organizational structure and culture rethought to allow for the success of new business models. In the end, technology enables but humans make it work |
